This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

NOTE.

THE expansion of the Library has necessitated the preparation of a new Catalogue, which incorporates the issue of 1880, the Supplement of 1882, and the additions to date. The compilation of the work has enabled the writer to make some changes in the method and form of the Catalogue, with the view of facilitating reference. These, he trusts, will be found of service to those consulting the volume. Pains have been taken to make the Index full and accurate. It will be observed that the date is appended of the last edition of the text-books, and the number or date (sometimes both) of the last volume of each Reporter. The Compiler would repeat the remark he made in the Prefatory Note to his former Catalogue, that he trusts that any defects found in the work may be charged to his lack of a professional, rather than of a bibliographical, acquaintance with law.

The divisions of the Catalogue are these: I. Descriptive alphabetical classification (Treatises, Reports, and Miscellaneous Books); II. Chronological List of Reports, Statutes, etc.; III. Abbreviations; and IV. Index. For obvious reasons the list given of United States Reports (pages 384 to 413) includes the whole series known to be published. All, however, are not in the Library. The note on page 386 indicates the Reporters in the Collection, and should be referred to by those consulting American Reports. Of the East Indian, Australian, and New Zealand Reports and Statutes, full lists of which are given for reference, only the following are in the Library:—The Indian Privy Council Appeals, and the New Zealand Statutes.

In order that the Catalogue may represent a full record, to date, of the books in the Library, the latest acquirements have been enumerated in an Addendum (pages 591 to 600).

The Compiler gratefully acknowledges the kind offices of the Librarian and his assistants during the preparation of the Catalogue.

* The Digests of Pandects are divided into 50 Books; each Book is divided into Titles, and each Title into Laws; and the Laws generally into Parts or Paragraphs. The first paragraph is not numbered, and is usually quoted by the abbreviation in pr. (in principis). The last paragraph is sometimes quoted by the word in fine, or § ult. (paragraphus ultimus). The Digest is variously quoted by the letters D or P, or II, or ff. ff is supposed to be a corruption of the D with a stroke through the middle, or perhaps of the Greek II.

The ancient mode of quotation was by mentioning the initial words of the Law and of the paragraph, with the initial words of the title. This made a reference to the General Index necessary, e.g., L. Profectitia, § si Pater, D de jure dotium, or in reversed order, D de jure dotium L Profectitia § si Pater. Afterward the quotation was L Profectitia 5, § si Pater 6 D de jure dotium; and latterly L 5, § 6 D de jure dotium; or, more correctly, using the letters fr instead of L., since the passages were not laws, but fragments or excerpts from the writings of the Jurisprudents, fr. 5, § 6 D de jure dotium. The modern mode avoids all reference to the words. It is thus: fr 5, § 6, D 23, 3; or, in reversed order, D 23, tit. 3, fr. 5, § 6, or, shortly, D 23, 3, 5, 6, v.s., Digest.
